Pattaya is definitely Thailand's windsurfing capital. One favorite spot is Jomtien Beach. Located close to Bangkok and just south of Pattaya, it has a long coast and wind speed is relatively the same year round. There is little in the way of rocks or coral to watch out for. Due to its favorable environment. Jomtien has been host to several local and international competitions.

Pattaya is more than just beach and bars. It offers several options to sports lovers and thrill seekers. Best of all, it is just over an hour's drive from Bangkok.
